Application deadline: Friday 12 January 2018 - 12:00*

The MA program is a certified course, taught in English, open to all professionals with a bachelor degree in (all sub-disciplines of) film, visual arts, digital media or performing arts, with a few years of experience in their field and with a research topic related to film. Candidates who wish to be admitted to the Master's Degree Programme in Film should complete an application form, accompanied by several enclosures, including examples of previous work. Candidates will be assessed in terms of the quality of their work, their motivation and experience, and their research plan.

Application requirements:

Your application becomes official once your form and all enclosures have been submitted to the Netherlands Film Academy.

Applications for the entrance examination for the Master of Film can be accepted solely:

- In English - please note that English is the official language of communication at the Master of Film
- If the application (including enclosures) is sent to us digitally and is sent to us in one hardcopy version. The hardcopy includes everything except material that is available on a website, on Vimeo or as an online portfolio. A digital passport photograph is sufficient.
- If the printed copy of the application form bears your signature
- If all enclosures are complete (see checklist at end of form!)
- Provided the entire digital application is delivered before 12.00 Central European Time on Friday 12 January 2018 (n.b. We take into consideration that postal service deliveries might arrive later)

Applications that are incomplete and/or don't meet the application requirements will not be taken into consideration. And -of course- any plagiarism will not be tolerated and will exclude the applicant from any further admittance to the course.

This form must be filled out digitally using Adobe Reader. Once you have completed the form in full, save it with your own name in the file name and print and sign one copy. Also upload your form together with the digital enclosures using WeTransfer.

The application should comprise of:

1. This application form: filled in, printed and signed
2. A comprehensive CV (400 words max.)
3. Your motivation for applying for a place in the Master of Film - (400 words max.):
 - Why do you wish to participate in the Master of Film at this stage of your career?
 - How do you expect the Master of Film to contribute towards your development?
 - What are your strengths and weaknesses?
4. Research plan and project proposal (800 words max.):

Define a research plan, which you wish to pursue during the Master's Programme. Explain why you wish to do so and what its (theoretical or practical) relevance is for you and for your (artistic) field. Contextualize your plan by explaining what has already been done by others and how your plan differs from, or contributes to what's already known or done. Indicate the approach or method you intend to adopt to execute the plan and the possible outcomes. Indicate the connection between your research plan, your motives and your previous work.

The field, topic or questions for your research can be very diverse. It can relate to cinema, visual arts or performing arts. It can deal with film, transmedia, installations, games, performance... It can deal with questions in any of the sub-disciplines of film (from directing and scriptwriting to cinematography or visual effects) and in any of the genres (fiction, documentary, animation...). The topics and methods can be conceptual, experimental or technological.

Also describe (the idea of) a concrete project (in any field and any genre) that could serve as a test case for your research that you may wish to develop within the Master's course. Please explain the relation between research and project.

It goes without saying that both the research plan and the project proposal may be adjusted or modified during the term of the programme. For examples of research and projects, see our website: www.masteroffilm.nl
5. Artist Statement (400 words max.):

Write a short statement describing who you are as a maker, how you position yourself in your (artistic) field, what your driving force is and what your ambitions are for the future.
6. Portfolio: what is required is a representative selection of your work, including critical reviews of the work, if available. Make a limited selection and clearly point out what you are submitting, or what it relates to and why. A link to your portfolio website is sufficient if preferable (under Step 1 in the application form). Please take into consideration that the committee has max. 2 hours per application.

Possible means of submission:

- Films (two max.), sound works, interactive material, etc., need to be submitted digitally. You may decide upon the running time of the submitted work yourself. Links to further digital portfolio files can be enclosed under Step 1 in the application form. All materials need to be in English, need to have English subtitles and/or an English dialogue list.
 - Photographs, sketches, drawings, storyboards, paintings or other graphic works should preferably be submitted as a single digital portfolio.
 - Written work – scripts, film plans, stories, reviews, ... – needs to be submitted in English. This may also comprise a compilation of various works.
7. A letter of recommendation + name, address and position or background of your referee.
 8. Striking films and other forms of cultural statement:
Name at least 2 titles and max. 6 titles for any of the following disciplines, which you recently watched, listened to, read or played, and which you considered the most inspiring. Briefly explain why.
 - Film (fiction, documentary, animation, experimental, ...)
 - Visual art (installations, photography, painting, performances, ...)
 - Digital media (games, internet or web works, smart design, ...)
 - Stage arts (theatre, dance, opera, ...)
 - Music (classical, jazz, pop, world music, soundscapes, ...)
 - Literature (fiction, non-fiction, poetry, ...)
 9. A digital passport photograph (.jpg or .pdf)
 10. A digital scan of your passport or EU/EEA National Identity Card. (.jpg or .pdf)
 11. A digital scan of your most advanced certificate of education / diploma. (.jpg or .pdf)
Note that regular scans of passport and diploma will be sufficient; no official stamps or copies are required.

Please send the completed PDF form and all digital enclosures using WeTransfer to the following email address: masteroffilm@ahk.nl

Save all files (the application form, passport photograph, passport scan, diploma scan and further enclosures) with your own name in the file name (example: application-masteroffilm-kris-dekkers.pdf). Collect them in a single folder with your name, zip the folder and upload to www.wetransfer.com, dropbox or google drive (don't forget to send us a sharing link).

The hardcopy version of your printed and signed application form and enclosures have to be submitted as a single package.

You may either deliver it personally to the Netherlands Film Academy, Master of Film at Markenplein 1 in Amsterdam, or post it to:
